Dear Parents / Carers

Students have had a busy term, with groups visiting Pizza Express, exploring London and celebrating pancake day.

Our year 11 students are now preparing for their exams in the summer, and we are supporting them to plan their revision and their well-being so that they can sit their exams as confidently as possible.

Monday 5 th May	School closed for Bank Holiday
Friday 9 th May	Year 11 exams begin. Please consult your child's personal exam timetable.

We understand that exams are daunting for all students, and some nerves are to be expected. We hope you will be able to support your child to do some preparation at home, but also to keep a healthy combination of activity and relaxation alongside some revision.

Yours sincerely

Diane Davies
Deputy Headteacher
Head of School (Willow Bank School)
